As seen in

Homes & Gardens:
Ahead of the Curve
February 2017

Featured Product
1. Formwork Lithic Bathtub

ESTB. 1978
WATERWORKS

AHEAD OF THE CURVE

For its latest offering of baths and basins, Waterworks, 020 7384 4000, uk.waterworks.com, has collaborated with architects Shelton Mindel & Associates to create sculptural pieces inspired by the Renaissance. They include this pleasingly chunky Formwork Lithic bath, H61xL183xW104cm, from £8,593.20, made from a hand-polished composite of stone dust and resin that has excellent insulating properties.

OFF THE HOOK

Support fresh talent and invest in distinctive bathroom fittings with this Borosilica glass hook, H9cm, £41.66, by artist Jochen Holz at The New Craftsmen, 020 7148 3190, thenewcraftsmen.com.

ON THE BRIGHT SIDE

If you're after a striking design for kitchen flooring, you'd be hard pressed to beat these colourful encaustic cement Eye Pattern tiles, 20cm sq, £3.96 each, from the Etcetera Collection by Ca'Pietra, 0844 915 0002, capietra.com. The tiles are available in Duck Egg, Hay, Ivory, Jade, Salmon and Warm Grey or as a multicolour mix, from Artisans of Devizes, 01380 323382, artisansofdevizes.com.

SERVING SUGGESTION

Quirky yet stylish with a painterly look, the whimsical handmade vegetable ceramics from Virginia Casa at Liberty, 020 7734 1234, libertylondon.com, are sure to be a talking point at your dinner table. Shown from the range are the Celery jug, H27cm, and the Onion platter, 43x24cm, £49.95 each.

PERFECT MATCH

Farrow & Ball fans will be delighted to hear of its collaboration with Pooky, 020 7351 3003, pooky.com, which enables you to coordinate your wall colour with your lighting. Choose from 19 wooden lamp bases in 21 F&B paint shades, using the tool on Pooky's website to visualise your selection. Prices start from £25 on top of the cost of the lamp.